THREE HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZENS PASS AWAY GRIM REAPERS VICTIMS

Mrs. W. Dudley Wallingford Stricken With Paralysis.

G. M. RUSSELL DIES IN MISSOURI

Mrs. James Gilbert Succumbs After Lingering Illness of Consumption.

Mrs. Ophelia Jane Wallingford was stricken with paralysis at her home here Saturday morning, Jan. 9th, 1909, at 9 o'clock and died three hours later, surrounded by her family and friends whom she recognized to the last. The summons coming thus sudden was a cruel blow to her devoted family, on all of whom she lavished the wealth of a mother's love at all times. Realizing her delicate health her husband and daughters have been very solicitous of her for many months and have done every thing thought could suggest for her comfort and pleasure. Mrs. Wallingford was a devout Christian having professed faith in Christ in girlhood and united with the Methodist church in this city, and has lived a consistent Christian life ever since.

She was born, June 12th, 1843, and was married, June 12th, 1867, on her twenty-fourth birthday to W. D. Wallingford, who survives her and was the mother of six children three of whom died in infancy and three of whom survive are living in Marion, being Mrs. Leona Koltinsky, wife Judge Herman Koltinsky, Rochester and Mrs. Margaret Noggle, wife of Clayton Percy Noggle of the Ohio Valley Coal & Coke Company, of DeKoven.

Mrs. Wallingford was a daughter of the late W. N. Rochester, Sr., and is survived by two brothers, Judge J. G. and W. N. Rochester, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Mrs. P. A. Howerton all of whom live here and in this vicinity. Mrs. Wallingford was a woman of elegant manners and queenly bearing and was thought by some who did not know her well to be reserved but her close friends and those who knew her best will testify to her amiable and lovable personality. One friend (who at first did not understand her quiet and dignified way which with her was perfectly natural) called her "Queen Victoria" which title always amused her very much.

Her remains were kept in the home, she had graced for forty years and where she had presided with love, until Monday afternoon, when at 2:30 the funeral was preached by Rev. J. B. Adams, and the interment was conducted at the New Cemetery. On the new made mound was laid by loving hands many floral offerings, one a pillow, emblematic of the Sweet Rest in which she was slumbering, one an anchor symbolic of the faith on which she anchored her hopes one a cross which mutely said "In my hand no price I bring simply to Thy cross I cling."

in a street car accident at Joplin, Missouri, and since that time he has been able to work very little. Last December he was taken ill and gradually grew worse until the end came at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning, January 7, 1909.

Col. Russell had very many warm friends in Marion and always said that the best people on earth lived in this city and in Crittenden county, and it was his request that his remains be brought here for interment. The funeral services at the grave were conducted by Rev. M. E. Miller, pastor of the Baptist church of this city. The minister paid an impressive tribute to the memory of the departed and many friends following the remains to their resting place.

Mrs. Alice Ann Gilbert, wife of our fellow townsmen J. G. Gilbert, passed away Saturday afternoon, Jan. 9th, 1909, at 4:30 p. m., after suffering from the ravages of that dread malady consumption, for a long and dreary year, lured on by the hope which that disease holds out to its victims even unto the last.

Mrs. Gilbert lived and died a Christian, she professed when a girl and united with the church at Mt. Zion, removing her membership to the M. E. church south here about ten years ago.

Mrs. Gilbert was born, Oct. 25th, 1855, and was a daughter of John Walt Cook and his wife, (Zerelda Clinton,) one brother, Fred Cook, of Mattoon, survives her also two half brothers, George, of Mattoon, and John Walter, of Texas and two half sisters, Mrs. Mary Cooper, of Caseyville; and Mrs. Ella Lucas, of Mattoon.

She was married, Feb. 14th, 1877, to J. G. Gilbert, who with two children, Dr. L. E. Gilbert, of Lismore, and Mrs. Robert Fisk, of Paducah, survives her.

The remains were buried in the Cook burying ground at Mt. Zion Sunday afternoon.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO CONFER IN REGARD TO HANDLING OF 1908 CROP.

Meeting Will Probably be Held This Week---Some Action Taken.

STAND BY THE ASSOCIATION.

Members of County Executive Committee Denounce False Reports Concerning Organization.

The Hopkins county Executive Committee of the Planters' Protective Association met at the court house in Madisonville Saturday afternoon in pursuance to the call of the chairman, and all of the districts were represented at the session. The meeting was presided over by Chairman Bradley Wilson.

The first business of the meeting was the hearing of a lengthy report of the plans of the Planters' protective Association for the ensuing year, which received the hearty approval of the entire body.

A special committee was appointed, consisting of W. L. Harris, J. C. Forrell and Joe Parish, who are to work in conjunction with Chairman Bradley Wilson on a proposition made with A. B. Jarvis, of Henderson, in regard to the 1909 crop. The committee and Mr. Jarvis will probably have a meeting this week and arrange all details.

One of the most important transactions of the meeting was the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That we hereby express our unbounded confidence and unswerving loyalty to the Planters' Protective Association. We condemn the unwarranted and false reports that fill the subsidized press of the country about the threatened

CASH IN ADVANCE

And Stop When Time Is Out System Adopted.

The Publisher of the Crittenden RECORD-PRESS has Decided to Adopt the Cash-in-Advance and Stop-When-Time-is-Out Policy on All Subscriptions for the Following Reasons.

FIRST—The post-office regulations require us to stop the paper when the subscriber becomes nine months in arrears. We find that this requires constant watchfulness and when these subscriptions are stopped, the amounts due us are practically lost to us because we can not see the people personally and collect, and they do not find it convenient to call or remit, and in a short while the thing is forgotten.

SECOND—Because perhaps one half our subscribers tell us to stop when the time is out and the other half tell us to keep on sending the paper. It is impossible for our clerk to remember who wants it stopped and who wants it sent on, and confusion and in many cases mistakes and ill feeling occur.

THIRD—Because everything we buy we have to pay cash for and our employees have to have their money every Saturday night. The cost of newspaper production is heavily increasing and it takes cash to keep things going.

FOURTH—Because we have now on our books exceeding $4,000 due us on subscriptions, nearly every cent of which is good but is so scattered over the country that it is impossible for us to collect it when we need it most. We send out names occasionally and many respond promptly, while the majority do not, because they do not find it convenient just at the time and the matter is deferred. Finally the amount runs up to $3, $4, $5, $6 or $7—and then in many cases the subscriber can't pay and we have finally to stop the paper and loose this amount, when to have paid $1 at the beginning of each year would have been easy and satisfactorily to both sides.

We give this notice in ample time for all subscribers to adjust their accounts. We want every subscriber to remain with us and believe it will be far more satisfactory to all concerned. Time was when the circulation of the RECORD-PRESS was small, and we knew personally almost every subscriber.

Now we furnish a paper much larger and better for the same price. It costs us nearly three times as much to furnish the present paper as it did a few years back. We cannot afford to carry on our book $4,000 in past due subscription accounts and we believe every reasonable man will agree with us.

On January 30th, 1909, the New System Will be Put Into Effect. On that Date All Past Due Subscriptions Will be Stopped and thereafter all Subscriptions will be Stopped Promptly at Expiration.

This is fair to everybody and is made necessary by reason of the postal regulations and sound business policy, as well as justice to all Our Subscribers

Caruthersville, Mo., Jan. 5.—Mr. S. M. Jenkins, Editor Press:

As the year 1908 has expired, the time to renew my subscription is at hand. So I write for the paper for 1909, and hope to get it regular. Four papers are due for 1908, but I let them go, if I can get my papers regular in 1909. I do not like to miss a single copy. I enclose $1 for the good old paper and wish it much success.

With many good wishes for my old Kentucky friends and home. I am sincerely your friend, Mrs. C. C. Underwood.

Phillipsburg, Kan., Dec. 30.—Mr. S. M. Jenkins, Dear Sir:

Enclosed find $1 for which please send me the "Record-Press" for one year, as I would like to keep up with the Marion news, to know what is going on there now.

There has been some building going on here all winter. I am at work on the new school building. It is three stories high and is a brick building. I get $2.50 and work nine hours a day. Some of the men have been working on Sundays to get it finished.

There are three papers published here. Wishing you a happy New Year, I remain your friend,
J. A. Dollar.

Valparaso, Ind., Dec. 25th, 1908.
Dear Editor:—Enclosed please find one dollar for my renewal for the Record-Press as per your request. I cannot do without it, as it is like meeting my friends from home. My husband says I think so much of the paper that I even read all the advertisements. We would have visited Marion, and my old home this Christmas, but could not on account of Mr. Baugher's rush of business but we will visit our old home later on. We send our kindest regards, a merry Christmas and a happy New Year to all of our friends.

Yours Respectfully,
Mrs. Geo. W. Bougher,
904 north Wash st, Valparaso, Ind.

Stratton, Colo., Dec. 26, 1908.—Mr. S. M. Jenkins, Dear Sir: Please enclose one dollar ($1.00) to renew my subscription for the Record Press for 1909, which is always a welcome visitor in our home.

Wishing all a happy New Year I will close. Mrs. W. H. Hughes

Sure a Free Scholarship Now.
All persons who contemplate entering the Western Kentucky State Normal School on a free scholarship should see their County Superintendent and make application at once, provided they have not already done so. Appointments may be made at any time. The Mid Winter Term opens January 26th, and that would be a most excellent time to enter. Catalog furnished upon application. Write H. H. Cherry, President of State Normal School, Bowling Green, Ky.

Letter From Missouri.

Jefferson Barracks, Mo., Dec. 28th, 1908.—S. M. Jenkins, dear sir: I will now try to tell you about the army I joined the army on the 16th day of last July at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. I am in the best branch of the service, are at least I think so. I am in the cavalry station at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., and it is a very nice place out here.

This is the largest military post in the United States, and the old soldier's home is here and there is about 5000 out here, and a man can see some of them drunk all the time and the most of them are as happy as a man can be.

I wish you would publish this if you can, so that lots of my friends that are living in Crittenden county, Ky., for that was the place where I was born and reared, and I am proud of it, for old Kentucky is the best place I ever saw.

The duty is light out here, we do a guard duty once a month, and we work two days in the kitchen, two days in the stables and day about the military post doing light jobs. There are four troop of cavalry there and we will have to go to the islands in March and it will be a nice trip. I think the army beats staying in old Kentucky with the darn night riders, but still I love them dearly. I was born on the farm, was the ran son of that.

Well I will close, hoping this will find all its readers a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Wishing you all good luck I remain yours respectfully,

Ervin Shadewens

INDIGESTION.

Misery From Your Disordered Stomach Goes in Five Minutes.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will occasionally take a little Diapepsin after eating. Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested, nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea. Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloating, Heartburn, Water brush Pain in stomach and intestines or symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach fails. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat and leaves nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50 cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually bring about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest dis-

Crocodile Shot Near Uniontown.

Tom Harris and Richard Below were hunting in the river bottoms, near Uniontown, and, seeing a peculiar head above the water, Harris shot it. It proved to be crocodile, and measured nearly 38 inches. It is attracting much attention. Some say it came from southern waters; others say it must have escaped from some park.—Morganfield Sun.

Large Hawk.

Ben Hopgood killed a chicken hawk one day last week that measured four feet and four inches from tip to tip. It was killed on Virge Pritchett's farm and was almost as large as an eagle. Spalding Parsons has the hawk's wings.—Morganfield Sun.

A great many people have kidney and bladder trouble, mainly due to neglect of the occasional pains in the back, slight rheumatic pains, urinary disorders, etc. Delay in such cases is dangerous. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are for weak back, backache, rheumatic pains and all kidney and bladder trouble. Soothing and antiseptic, and act promptly. Don't fail to get DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Accept no substitute. Regular size 50c. Sold by all druggists.

R. F. D. 1, City.

REV. W. B. YATES

The noted singer and choir leader who is assisting in the protracted meeting now being conducted at the Methodist Church in this city.

FINK'S CHORD CHART.

For twenty five cents we will send you, post paid a chart for the piano and organ showing all the chords and naming them on either instrument in from 3 to 5 hours.

This chart is different from any other chart. All other instruction charts are in from 8 to 12 different parts and hard to understand, while this is one. Money refunded if not satisfied. FINK MUSIC COMPANY, JEWETT, OHIO.

MISERY IN STOMACH.

And Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes And You Feel Fine.

Why not start now—today, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and besides, one triangle will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to begin taking Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to be thoroughly cured of Indigestion.

THAT METEOR.

"Ball of Fire" Seen Passing Over This City, Fell in Crittenden County.

Several persons in Providence saw the meteor that passed over this place on the Sunday following Christmas day and the heavenly body was also seen at Hopkinsville and other points before it reached here. As it passed over this city two reports were heard resembling distant artillery and many thought it was an earthquake.

Answer This Question

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured numerous cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are two letters which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Red Banks, Miss. — "Words are inadequate to express what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from a female disease and weakness which the doctors said was caused by a fibroid tumor, and I commenced to think there was no help for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman after all other means had failed. My friends are all asking what has helped me so much, and I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. Willie Edwards.

Hampstead, Maryland. — "Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was weak and nervous, and could not see on my feet half a day without suffering. The doctors told me I never would be well without an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors, and I hope this valuable medicine may come into the hands of many more suffering women." — Mrs. Joseph H. Dandy.

We will pay a handsome reward to any person who will prove to us that these letters are not genuine and truthful—or that either of these women were paid in any way for their testimonials, or that the letters are published without their permission, or that the original letter from each did not come to us entirely unsolicited.

What more proof can any one ask?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Unfortunate Messina, the victim of the recent frightful catastrophe, is thus described by a traveler:

Messina, Sicily, population 150,000, is next to Palermo, the most important city in Sicily. It is situated in the northwest corner of the island on the Strait of Messina.

Among the leading buildings are the Municipal palace, the convent of San Gregorio, which contains a museum of valuable relics, buildings of the university, which is attended by 600 students, and a municipal hospital.

The outskirts and environs are delightful, affording magnificent views of the sea, as well as of Mount Etna. On the west rises the former fort of Castellaccio, and not far away to the south is Fort Gonzaga, on a historic spot.

The new Campo Santo is beautiful, with its graceful Greek colonnades and wonderful views. The Telegrofo—the summit of a pass near Messina—is much visited for its scenery. Here was supposed to be Charibdis of the familiar legend, opposite Scilla, on the Calabrian coast.

Founded 800 B. C.

Messina is a town of great antiquity, its foundation being ascribed to pirates from Cumae in the eighth century B. C., when it was known as Zancle (a sickle), in allusion to the shape of its harbor.

At the end of the fifth century B. C. the town was occupied by fugitives from Samos and Miletus, and it soon after passed to Anaxillas, the tyrant of Rhegium, who introduced there Messenians from the Peloponnesus, by whom the name of the city was changed to Messana.

After the death of Anaxillas Messana became a republic and maintained that status until its destruction by the Carthaginians during their wars with Dionysius of Syracuse at the beginning of the fourth century B. C. It was rebuilt by Dionysius, but soon fell again into the hands of the Carthaginians, who were finally expelled by Timoleon in B. C. 343.

Once Belonged to Rome.

During the war between Agathocles of Syracuse and Carthage, Messana sided with the Carthaginians. The first Punic war left Messana in the possession of Rome, and the town subsequently attained considerable commercial importance.

In A. D. 331 the town was taken by A Horrible Hold-Up.

"About ten years ago my brother was held up in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless Consumption," writes W. R. Lipscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles. He is a well man today." Pastor of the Chicago Ave. (Moody's) Church, Chicago.

"That by two immutable things in which it is impossible for God to Me, we might have a strong consolation who have fled for refuge to lay upon the hope set before us; which hope we have as anchor of the soul, both sure and fast." — Hebrews, 6:19-21.

There is an ancient legend that the gods filled a bow with blessings and gave it to Pandora, the first woman, for safe keeping. She opened it inadvertently and everything in it escaped except hope. But Pandora with hope in her box was richer than she could have been if every other blessing had remained without hope. Wealth without hope is sorrow. Pleasure without hope is pain. Health without hope is disease. Life without hope is death. Light without hope is darkness. Prosperity without hope is adversity. Take hope out of the world and you have blotted out the sun that rules the day and the stars that rule the night. Hopelessness turns midday into midnight.

The Christian has a threefold joy coming from the past, present and future. Paul said: "I am now ready. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith. Henceforth." The "now" of the present is like a bridge buttressed on one side by the experience of the past and on the other by the hope of the future. He is strong enough for martyrdom in the present because the memory of the past means victory and the hope of the future means glory. The end of time with him is the dawn of eternity.

The Basis of Hope.

"By two immutable things in which it was impossible for God to lie." My hope is based upon the veracity of God. God has promised, and if he should break a promise he would cease to be God. There is one exception to the scripture "With God all things are possible." It is impossible for him to lie. And this makes it impossible for me to be disappointed if I base my hope upon his word. God is conscientious. He does all he

GENERAL BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

There are undoubtedly good reasons for believing that the business interests of the country are facing the future with brighter hopes. Trade in many quarters shows a striking increase over the corresponding period last year, and there is strong confidence that the volume of business in 1909 will reach a high level. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has placed contracts for large quantities of rails for delivery this year, orders closed the last few days by this road being for more than double the quantity bought previously in 1908. Other railroads are expected to follow the lead of the Pennsylvania Company, and further heavy sales of rails are anticipated. Building operations are also increasing. Construction work settled for in November will require an expenditure of more than twice as much as was arranged for the same month in 1907. The proposed new building operations decided upon last month calls for an outlay of $59,797,944. The industrial position is therefore progressing in an extremely satisfactory manner. With railroad building and general activities extending we may confidently look for a decided betterment of business conditions at large when the full swing of the favorable indications now in sight will gradually bring a genuine revival to all trade interests throughout the entire country. Locally the moving of the tobacco crop (which is confidently looked for at an early date) will revive business and start something to the advantage of our merchants and farmers, speed the day. The fact that hundreds of wagon loads are already being unloaded here and will be prized by the association, proves the wisdom of its management and its ability to handle the situation to the benefit of our farmers.

CALL FOR DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

The Democratic County Committee is hereby call to meet in Marion, Ky., on Saturday, Jan. 16th, 1909, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of filling any vacancy that may be in said committee, and the transaction of such other business as may come before it.

MARION F. POGUE, Ch'm.
T. H. COCHRAN, Sec'y.

Mrs. Oscar Turner Expired in Louisville Friday.

A special from Louisville Friday night announced the death of Mrs. Oscar Turner at her county home, Melrose, near that city, Friday afternoon, Jan. 1st, at 3 o'clock of paralysis.

Mrs. Turner was born in Dresden, Tenn., in 1836, and was the daughter of Alfred Gardner, a prominent citizen of that place. She married Oscar Turner in Dresden in 1856, moving with him to Ballard county, where he owned a plantation and later to Louisville. She spent several winters in Washington when Mr. Turner was congressman from the first congressional district. Mrs. Turner was a woman of much culture and refinement, having traveled extensively in this country and abroad, and she had a host of friends. She had three children, Oscar Turner Jr., and Hal Turner, both dead, and Mr. W. J. Abrams, of Louisville. Two sisters and one brother survive her. Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Columbia, Tenn., Mrs. John Thomason, of Dresden, Tenn., and William H. Gardner of Union City, Tenn., the father of Russell H. Gardner, the St. Louis millionaire.

Mrs. Turner's burial took place at Cave Hill cemetery at Louisville Saturday afternoon.

A CALL.

The Republican County Committee, of Crittenden county, together with all prospective candidates for county offices, are hereby respectfully solicited to meet at Marion, Ky., at 1 o'clock p. m., on Saturday the 23rd day of January, 1909, for the purpose of determining the method of naming the County ticket for the November Election, 1909, and to fill all and any six vacancies that may appear on the Committee. And to attend to any and all other business that may come regularly before the Committee.

Very Respectfully,
H. A. HAYNES, Chr'm of County Committee. By JNO.
G. ASHER, Sec'y.

A SEVERE REBUKE

Only Once Before Has a President Been So Treated.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Rebuke to President Roosevelt in the House of Representatives by a vote of 212 to 35; rebuke to President Roosevelt in the Senate by a vote of 57 to 14.

For the second time in the history of our government, the House of representatives has laid upon the table a message from the President of the United States. The first President to thus be rebuked was Andrew Johnson; the second is Theodore Roosevelt.

John's offense was a recommendation which amounted, in the opinion of the House, to repudiation of the obligations of the government.

Mr. Roosevelt's offense is impugning of the motives of members in voting for a change in the law regulating the secret service.

White-McConnell.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. Lilley Duvall McConnell went to Evansville ostensibly to do some shopping.

She was met there by Mrs. Timmons, who assisted her in making her selections for an event which the sales-ladies averred must be of more than passing importance.

Wednesday Mrs. McConnell's brother went to Evansville and later the trio was joined by Mr. Aubrey Timmons and Mr. J. R. White, both of Sebree, and who were accompanied also by a minister and a licensee for the marriage of Mr. White and Mrs. McConnell which was solemnized at noon at the Vendome Hotel.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner at the Vendome and later left for the groom's home at Sebree, where he is engaged in the jewelry business.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Duvall, of this city, and is a handsome young woman with many enviable traits of character.

Her many friends here where she was born and grew into manhood, will be glad to hear of her good fortune, and will congratulate the groom in winning her as his bride.

Entertained.

Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Miller entertained at dinner Friday the deacons of the Baptist church here, except-

No Part of the Earth That Has Suffered So Severely from Earthquakes and Volcanic Eruptions--Contrast Between Ancient and Modern Times in Treatment of Disaster.

ITALIAN CITIES WHERE LOSS OF LIFE WAS HEAVIEST

Cities in which loss of life was heaviest were as follows:
Messina, population 100,000; wrecked by shock and swept by tidal wave.
Reggio, population 50,000; destroyed.
Catania, population 140,000; in ruins.
Cassino, population 6,700; in ruins.
Cosenza, population 21,000; nearly all dead.
Seminara, small village, destroyed.
Scilla, population 7,800; in ruins.
Paterno, population 24,000; in ruins.
Vittoria, population 32,000; badly wrecked.
Naro, population 12,800; half destroyed.
Riposto, population 7,000; in ruins.
All, Mineo, Patti and Castronreal, Sicilian towns; all badly damaged, with heavy loss of life.
Palma, Bagheria, San Giovanni and Cannitello, Calabrian villages; all in ruins.

The portion of Italy affected by the recent earthquake is in the most convolution-smitten region of the globe. The main area of disturbance was in Calabria, though cities on the island of Sicily were shaken and a tidal wave inundated that island's sea coast.

Notwithstanding the fact that since the beginning of history the ground of Calabria has been known to have the habit of opening as if to swallow up its inhabitants, the region has always been well populated. Nearly a million and a half of cheerful, reckless people lived there. The Appenine mountains run through the region for a distance of 160 miles, considerably reducing the area amenable to tillage, but the valleys and plains are among the most fertile anywhere in the world, yielding in abundance a variety of crops. The neighboring fisheries are important.

In respect of the property damage inflicted and the number of lives extinguished, as well as in respect of the extent of the disturbance, the earthquake far eclipses the great disasters of its type, such as that which destroyed Lisbon in 1755 and that which visited the western coast of South America in August, 1906.

Region Always in Tumult.
Probably no part of the earth of equal fertility, population and historic note has suffered more severely from earthquakes and volcanic eruptions than this part of the Mediterranean basin. From the beginnings of recorded history Stromboli has seldom been quiet. Vesuvius has been frequently in eruption, and Etna is always growing and periodically is in violent action.

With or without eruptions from these volcanoes the region has felt disastrous earthquakes in almost every century since history began to be written. The eruption of Vesuvius which overwhelmed Pompeii and Herulanum in 79 A. D. is most spoken of because of the relics of antiquity which it so strangely preserved, but within the last eight centuries there have been many earthquakes thereabouts which caused great loss of life and property.

For instance, Catania, which is again visited, is said to have lost 15,000 people by earthquake in 1137 and to have been wholly destroyed, with a loss of 18,000 lives, in September, 1693. By this earthquake 54 Sicilian cities and towns and 300 villages were reported wrecked, with a total loss of 100,000 lives.

"Why I Prefer Southdowns."

We clip from the Practical Farmer the following article written by Jas. B. Carter, of Levias, on which he drew third prize of $8.00.

"I prefer the Southdown, as I think they fatten more readily, make better mothers, and the lambs bring better price with us. I prefer to have lambs come in January and February, for several reasons. First I can give them more attention. Second, the early lambs always bring the best price with us, and I lose fewer early lambs than late ones. I find my sheep do well on most any of the grasses, white or red clover, timothy or red top. So I change them frequently, as they need changing from one field to another. I try to have my ewes go into winter quarters in good flesh; what most farmers would call fat. In the early fall and before they begin to lose in flesh, I either turn them in a fresh stalk field or feed them clover or pea vine hay with a small amount of sheep oats, if I have it. This ration is kept up until us until lambing time, which is usually January 15th. Then I leave off the oats and feed ear corn broken into broad flat-bottomed troughs, allowing one-half ear per head, with all the nice bright shock fodder or clover hay they will eat reasonably clean. At night I feed all the pea hay they will eat. When the ground is frozen, so they won't trample the fodder under foot, it is fed some distance from the barn, in order to give the pregnant ewes more exercise. The pea vine and clover hay are fed in racks, spaced three inches, placed directly over the broad flattened troughs. I prefer the flat bottoms to the V-shaped ones. These racks are made the same width as the troughs, to catch the leaves and fine hay that falls through the rack. Don't feed a sheep musty or damaged hay and expect to eat it.

Up to this time my sheep are allowed free access to a good dry ventilated barn, with the doors standing open all the time except in case of severe weather or rain and snow storms. Great care should be taken not to scare or worry the sheep, and they should have only the kindest treatment. Next comes the care of young lambs. Here, in my opinion, lies the failure of a great many in the sheep business. Before the lambs begin to come, I see that the barn is well bedded with good dry straw or litter; that all the doors fit close, so that in case of severe weather I can close the barn up nice and warm. I have several hinged panels made of light materials (weather boards will do all right) 3½ feet high and 5 feet long, provided with screw eyes and hooks, the same as are used on screen doors. By commencing in one corner of the barn, two panels makes a pen 3½x5 feet. In this pen or lamb hurdle, I place the little lamb and its mother, and keep them there for a day or two, giving her the best of care in the way of food and water. I always place the ewe to herself if I have reason to believe there will soon be a new lamb. This will usually be indicated to the observant shepherd. I always see that the ewe has plenty of milk for her new born lamb, and that it gets it. If she does not have sufficient milk, I then heat skim milk to blood heat and feed from a bottle with rubber nipple. In case a lamb becomes chilled by being born on the cold ground or otherwise, I put it in a tub of hot water, as hot as I can bear my hand in. After the bath I rub dry with cloth, then feed a little fresh milk or sweet cream diluted with water. If a ewe loses her lamb, which they rarely ever do, I skin the dead lamb immediately and put its skin on its snug and nice. Now place the lamb and its foster mother in one of the pens described, and she will adopt it as her own. After twelve or twenty-four hours the skin should be removed, the length of time it is left on, depending on how willingly the foster mother adopts the lamb. I have worked this successfully with lambs three or four weeks old. If a ewe fails to own her lambs I put her head in a stanchion and keep her so until she does. That beats tying with a rope.

When lambs are three weeks old I begin to feed them a little wheat bran and clover hay, using V-shaped troughs. Later I add all the cracked corn they will eat. I dock my lambs at from two to three weeks old. To keep up my breeding stock I select my earliest and best, as they make the largest and best ewes, and are more likely to breed early than late ones. I prefer to have my young ewes drop their lambs at two years old. I sell my ewes when they begin to get old and hard to winter. Every year, or two years at most, I change my buck, try each year to get a better one. I think one good vigorous buck sufficient for flock of 40 ewes. In selecting my buck I try to get one coming nearest my ideal—low, broad, heavy body, with heavy legs. This season I have over 50 lambs dropped, and have had but one to die. Each ewe in the flock has either two or two lambs, except one. Many good points in managing my farm have been obtained by reading farm papers, and especially The Practical Farmer.

Always Keeps A Bottle in the House.

"About ten days before Christmas I got my hand hurt so badly that I had to stop work right in the busy time of the year," says Mr. Milton Wheeler, 2100 Morris Ave., Birmingham, Ala. "At first I thought I would have to have my hand taken off, but someone told me to get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and that would do the work. The Liniment cured my hand and I gladly recommend it to everyone."

Mr. J. E. Matthews, proprietor of St. James Hotel, Corning, Ark., says: "My finger greatly inflamed fish string and doctors pronounced it blood poisoning. I used several applications of Sloan's Liniment and it cured all right. I will always keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment in my house."

Mr. J. P. Evans, of Mt. Airy, Ga., says: "After being afflicted for three years with rheumatism, I used Sloan's Liniment and was cured sound and well, and am glad to say I haven't been troubled with rheumatism since. My leg was badly swollen from my hip to my knee. One-half bottle took the pain and swelling out."

Governor and Mrs. Black- burn to Return to Panama.

Governor and Mrs. Blackburn, at their home on nineteenth street, gave a cosy luncheon this week to a few close Kentucky friends, say the Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal. Mrs. Blackburn was handsome in a direttore gown of black satin, with Panamanian ornaments of virgin gold. The governor with his wife and pretty little granddaughter Miss Theresa Lane, expect to return to Panama on Friday. No end of brilliant entertainments have been given in honor of the popular couple since their return to Washington. A dinner was given for them at the Willard this week, a box party at the National theater and many other affairs.

The Hon. and Mrs. Ollie James are located at the Hotel Cochran for the winter, as are also the Hon. Ben Johnson and family.

President Helps Orphans.

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the President of the Industrial and Orphans Home at Macon Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates the vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, creates appetite. To strengthen and build up thin, pale, weak children or run-down people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50¢ at Jas H. Orme and Haynes and Taylor.

Beech Bargis Gets Drunk And Is in Jail Once More.

Jackson, Ky., Jan. 5.—With Wallace Cole, a companion, Beech Bargis, who yesterday was released on a $25,000 bond to await trial for the murder of his father, Judge James Hargis, was arrested, disarmed and jailed tonight in this place.

It was charged by the witnesses before the police judge, that Hargis had been drunk and disorderly and that he had fired many shots before the store of County Judge S. S. Taublie.

When Mrs. Hargis, his mother, heard of the fresh difficulty, she notified the town marshall to come to her and that she would pay the fine.

Beach decided to resist the charges, however, which are of carrying concealed and deadly weapons and disorderly conduct.

DISEASE ADDS TO HORROR

American Ambassador Presents Ship Loaded With Supplies to King, Who Says Americans are Always First.

Rome, Jan. 6.—The report from Messina that typhoid fever has broken out there has filled the authorities with apprehension. It is realized here that unless proper sanitary precautions are taken at once, the disease may spread far outside the ruined districts. Even though the present cases may prove to be dysentery, it is well known that this disease under such conditions as prevail at Messina and Reggio would be likely to prove just as fatal as typhoid.

According to well-known medical authorities, it is the disease that has been responsible for the decimation of almost whole armies in time of war and the exciting cause is unwholesome drinking water, and the ingestion of articles unfit for food. All most perfect conditions prevail for its propagation at Messina.

King Victor Emmanuel today received Ambassador Griscom, who represented him with the steamer Bayern, in the name of the American Relief Committee, representing the American people. The Bayern is loaded with provisions and medical supplies and is ready to proceed to the straits of Messina. The King was greatly pleased and said that the Americans were always first. His majesty advised the Ambassador as to where the steamer should proceed and as to the best means of distributing its supplies to the unfortunate.

The seven members of the executive committee are to draw $2,000 each and expense, while the forty-three members representing each county are allowed $500 each and expenses.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST G. E. BOOE.

Grand Jury at Frankfort Returns Batch of True Bills Against Former Auditor's Clerk.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 5.—Thirty-five indictments against Judge Charles E. Booé, late claim clerk in the State Auditor's office, were returned in open court this morning by the Franklin County grand jury. The indictments charge forgery within a forgery and defrauding the state with false vouchers, each of which is a felony.

A bench warrant was issued for Judge Booé and his bond was fixed at $10,000. His attorney said when Judge Booé was given a preliminary hearing that he would be unable to give more than $5,000 bail.

Judge Booé made no effort to obtain the $10,000 bond fixed by Judge Stont after the grand jury had returned the indictments and will go to jail this afternoon to await trial.

GREATEST TRAGEDY THAT HAS BEFALLEN CHRISTIAN WORLD

Magnitude of Calamity in Calabria and Sicily Is Unprecedented—Entire Region Completely Destroyed—Whole Face of Country and the Coast Line Altered.

The earthquake which has devastated the Italian department of Calabria and Sicily has wrought the greatest tragedy which ever has befallen the Christian world.

It is colossal without precedent. Nothing previously known in European history can be compared with it. A whole region has been destroyed. That corner of Italy on which nature seemed to smile, Messina and Reggio, are heaps of ruins under which lie buried thousands of corpses.

All the country along the Straits of Messina has suffered. Lower down the coast the sea rushed with terrific violence into Giarre, Riposto, Borgo and Giovanuli, sweeping away houses, ships, fishing boats and human beings. All the fishing boats at sea have disappeared.

At Palma and Bagnara the dead are counted by hundreds and the injured of the strait, must have been more violent, for scarcely one stone remains on another in that flourishing city of only two days ago.

Where a few days ago stood the homes and works of men and busy streets there is nothing but chaotic rocks and earth.

The city had vanished as completely as Aladdin's palace under the magician's spell.

CATHEDRAL AT MESSINA.

Messina was a city of 150,000 inhabitants, and is said to have been founded under the name of Zanclæ in 600 B. C. It is an important seaport of Sicily and capital of the province. Among the public buildings are about 50 churches, many of them of great beauty. The cathedral, by thousands. Throughout the province of Calabria the ravages were frightful.

ALL COMPLETELY DESTROYED.

Messina and Reggio are in ruins. The towns of Naro, Scilla, Maletto, Belluccio, Riposto and Bagnara have been destroyed, as has the town of Giarri, in Calabria. Cantillo has been wiped off the map. Nearly every town along the coast of Sicily for miles south of Messina was engulfed by the sea.

The earthquake's titanic might transformed the face of Sicily; rivers were dried up or their course changed; hills disappeared; vast crevices are yawning in the earth; the country is desolated.

The destruction of property cannot be as great as at San Francisco, for Messina and Reggio, the two principal cities destroyed, were not rich or magnificent from the metropolitan point of view. As a great cataclysm of nature, however, this disaster is on a far vaster scale than the California phenomenon.

Face of Country Altered.

The whole face of the country and the coast line have been altered. Even Scylla and Charybdis have changed the positions they have occupied since Aeneas' legendary voyage.

The three provinces where the greatest damage was done were Messina and Catania, in Sicily, and Reggio di Calabria, on the mainland. They comprise about 4,400 square miles. The rock of Charybdis now blocks the entrance to the strait of Messina.

Several hundred persons perished and much damage was done outside of these provinces, but within them the devastation was so complete that scarcely a human habitation remains.

All accounts now agree that the time occupied by nature's gigantic spasms was but 32 seconds.

Some minutes later a great wave completed the havoc in the ill-fated coast towns.

Shock a Fearful One.

The violence of the shock seems to have been unprecedented except by volcanic eruptions within a limited area.

The buildings of Messina were not merely shaken down—their foundations literally were yanked from beneath them to one side or to the other, until they toppled from the perpendicular and fell in ruins alongside their original sites.

'That was the experience of Messina. That of Reggio, on the opposite side which is one of the show places of the city, is of Gothic architecture, with a somewhat heavy exterior but supported within by vast pillars of granite supposed to have belonged to a temple of Neptune. The Corso is the most fashionable of the drivesways.

ter Emmanuel, despite the protests of his ministry, hastened to Calabria personally to console the survivors of the earthquake. As soon as the magnitude of the present disaster became apparent the king and queen made arrangements to go at once to the scene of the calamity.

CHAPEL HILL.

Another milestone has been reached; another revolution of the wheel of time has been completed; the pleasures and disappointments, the smiles and tears, sunshine and shadows of 1908—all these have passed and gone in to the eternal past, and while the same opportunities will never come again, let us hope the new year will offer us still greater ones, that we may so profit by the experiences of the old year that we may the better know how and when to grasp and make the most of the privileges of the new year. Let us be thankful for the blessings of the old year and to do better work for the rising generation. So we welcome the good year of our Lord 1909.

Now, to the editor of the Record-Press, we wish you a joyful and a bountiful New Year. Hope you may have a good supply of readers of the grand old Press, and that the subscribers will increase in numbers until every man in old Crittenden county will become a subscriber, many in the counties adjoining, as well as all former natives who are scattered throughout the various states of the Union. We believe every one in the county should take his county paper.

Daniel, who is a nephew of Mr. Long, and when the house was well filled, Mr. Noell came with his violin, and with fiddle and organ and singing, Charlie said it made him think of old times. He silently left the house without telling any one where he went. He returned after a time, from down town, with his arms full of candy, oranges, cigars and loaded down with Christmas goods, saying he was Santa Claus.

The crowd had all they could eat and went away each one thinking it well to be there. He started for his home on Xmas eve morning and the parting with him was with sadness and tears. His short visit to our little town will long be remembered by us all.
